Tetuan, Auguſt 3, O. S.

THE Report of the Plague's being in this Country is entirely without Foundation; there having been no other Sickneſs here for ſome Time paſt than what is common at this Time of the Year by the People's eating too much Fruit, without the Aſſiſtance of either Bread or Meat to ſupport Nature, occaſioned by the Dearneſs thereof, ſo that a Famine is the Calamity that threatens them moſt, if not ſupported by Chriſtian Powers; but both the People here, and at Fez, enjoy at preſent perfect Health. One of our Galleys is returned into Port, and has brought with her a French Tartan loaden with Barley, which ſhe took two Days ago off Malaga; and the Boats at Tangiers have alſo brought in a Ship with Corn.

Lisbon, Aug. 28. As ſoon as the nine Days cloſe Retirement at Court were over, on Account of the late King's Death, Notice was given to the Nobility and Foreign Miniſters, that they might come and pay their Compliments of Condolence to the new King, which Ceremony was performed with great Order and Decency. The Time of his Majeſty's Receſs was chiefly taken up in examining the Situation of his Finances, and the interior Affairs of his Kingdom. Great Preparations are actually making in the large Square before the Palace, where a vaſt Theatre is erecting for the Swearing in of the new King, according to the antient Cuſtom obſerved here, and to receive at the ſame Time the Homage of the Nobility, Clergy and Miniſters of the ſeveral Tribunals of this Place. The Day is not fixed as yet, but if every Thing can be got ready, it will be performed on the 7th of September, being the Queen Dowager's Birth-Day.

Naples, Aug. 28. Two Brothers, whoſe Names are Ricci, and a Companion of theirs, were ſecured near Capoa on the 15th and 16th Inſtant, by a Detachment of Soldiers of that Garriſon, as they were eſcaping into the Eccleſiaſtical State. Theſe three Perſons were the Ring-leaders of that great Number of Banditti which occaſioned all the late Troubles in the Province of Terra di Lavoro, upwards of 40 of whom are now in Priſon, and the reſt entirely diſperſed.

M. Guſman, the new Portugueſe Miniſter to the Pope, who is ſhortly expected here from London, amongſt other Diſpoſitions, has ſent Orders to his Agent here, to hire the ſame Palace at the Pillotta, which the late M. Sampario, his Predeceſſor, occupied. On the 25th Inſtant arrived in this City from Civita Vecchia, where they were landed from France, a Train of fine Coaches for the Publick Entry of the Duke de Nivernois, the French Ambaſſador to the Pope: Theſe Coaches are made at the Expence of the French King, and are to remain at Rome for the Uſe of the French Ambaſſadors.

ſome Time ago been deprived by the Regency of the Adminiſtration of his Eſtate, which was given to the Son, with an Obligation to make an annual Allowance out of it to his Father. This Government is endeavouring to find out Means to provide the neceſſary Funds and Houſes for the Relief and Maintenance of the vaſt Number of poor People in this City; for which Purpoſe they have commanded the Officers of the reſpective Pariſhes to give in Liſts of all their Poor, and to diſtinguiſh all ſuch as are incapable of getting their Livelihood.

Bruſſels, Sept. 17. We learn from Mons, that the Fortifications of that Place do not advance ſo faſt as they could wiſh, the Perſons who have undertaken the ſame having been almoſt ruined by their Contract. The Garriſon of this City is conſtantly exerciſed twice a Day after the Pruſſian Manner; and 'tis aſſured, that the Troops of the Empreſs Queen will for the Future be cloathed after the Manner of thoſe of his Pruſſian Majeſty. The Miniſtry here employ all their Time in endeavouring to re-eſtabliſh the Trade of this Country; for which Purpoſe the States of Flanders have now under their Conſideration a Plan of Commerce greatly in Favour of the Engliſh Nation.
